

Tate Galleries

■ Clients core business

- The Tate galleries are one of the world's leading visual arts organisations with a mission to increase public knowledge, understanding and appreciation of British, modern and contemporary art.

■ Contract description

- SPIE Matthew Hall have delivered facilities management services to the Tate since 1999

■ Services provided

- BMS settings regularly reviewed and modified to reflect exhibition schedules
- Energy survey and report
- Monthly energy reporting and invoice validation
- Mini-bus provided to transport between London sites
- Data collection in preparation for the Display Energy Certificates
- Support to Tate for certification to the Energy Efficiency Accreditation scheme
- Integration of facilities services and projects with the energy action plan to minimise cost and target resources effectively
- Projects include installation of variable speed drives, various lighting projects (lamps and controls), re-lagging of roof plant and boiler modifications